What we Live For

'We h e f r th e I lo lo e us—
F r th h re k nd l l tru
F r t ll n t t s l ns,
And wh h we ar l ten g t

So sing the Hutchinsons in one of their touching heart songs The thought may for a moment arrest the attention of a few who listen to its utterance in melody, but the mass hear nor heed it not. They seem to live as though life had no great purpose—no higher aim than the gratification of self These in the crowd are jostling each other, fiercely almost are treading down each other, to reach their particular goal The pale face of sorrow, or the wail of distress are unheeded Gain—gain—is the maddened cry Gold and lands for to day, for to morrow we die Let the dogs lick the sores of the poor and despised Samaritans turn aside to bind up the bruised and wounded unfortunates Stock in heaven, brings no direct dividend in money Lending to the Lord, will not add two per cent per month to the yearly accumulations Such seems to be the common understanding Men act as if life were an eternity But the night cometh, there are graves to fill and worms to fatten Wealth finds no exclusive privileges under the sod, or "over the river" Bonds mortgages and stocks, are not current in the 'hereafter" No "sharp practice," no 'shrewd business transactions' there No extraordinary per cents for those who have entered into an inheritance which fadeth not away. No poor faces to grind, for all are rich They are joint heirs with Jesus Christ to an eternity of bliss Sorrow and pain, the crutch and tattered garments, the bruised and injured heart, have been left in the grave, and the paupers in earth become the owners of Heaven! Oh! how often we have thought of what might be the feelings of the rich, the pompous and the proud, when they see those they scorned here, robed in the unfading and dazzling fabrics of eternal angel life.—Wis Chief

Freedom for the Children

A child of three years of age, with a book in its infant hands is a fearful sight It is too often the death warrant, which the condemned stupidity looks at—fatal, yet beyond its comprehension What should a child three years old be taught Strong meats for weak digestions make not bodily strength Let there be nursery tales and nursery rhymes told them I would say to every parent, especially every mother, sing to your children, tell them pleasant stories, and if in the country, be not too careful lest they get a little dirt upon their hands and clothes, earth is very much akin to us all, and children's out of door play soils them not inwardly

There is in it a kind of consanguinity between all creatures, by it we touch upon the common sympathy of our first substance, and beget a kindness for our poor relations, and brutes Let children have a free, open air sport and fear not though they make acquaintance with the pigs, the cows, and the chickens—they may form worse friendships with the wiser looking ones, encourage a familiarity with all who love to court them—dumb animals love children and children love them. There is a language among them which the world's language obliterates in the elders It is of more importance than that you should make them wise, that is, book wise

☞The Rev Ephraim Judson, a clergyman settled in Norwich, Conn, in 1771, was an exceedingly quaint and original pastor Remarking in one of his sermons upon the excuses made by the guests invited to the wedding feast, he observed one had bought five yoke of oxen simply to be excused while the one who married a wife declared he could not come "Hence we learn," said the preacher, "that one woman can pull harder than five yoke of oxen."

Forgetting Misfortune

Tim McGowan, a gallant fellow lost his life in the Mexican war He had lost an arm when a boy, by having the limb crushed under the wheel of a juggernaut in the 'ould country' His surviving brother, Dennis, never ceases boasting of Tim's exploits In a Moyamensing bar room, the other evening, Dennis began on the old theme of the Mexican war, dwelling with particular emphasis on the heroic deeds of his deceased relative

'Och, murther, but ye ought to have seen Tim at Rye sack a dollar pole me, (meaning Resaca de la Palma) He caught two Mexican black guards by the cuffs of the necks and kilt them both as dead as herrings by knocking their heads together'

'How could that be,' said a listener, 'when your brother had but one arm?'

Bliss yer sowl' answered Dennis, 'one arm had he? That's true enough for ye, but then ye see, Tim forgot all about that when he got into a fight'

☞Many a glorious speculation has failed for the same good reason that the old Texas Ranger gave when he was asked why he didn't buy land when it was dog cheap A correspondent tells the story

'Well, I did come nigh onto taking eight thousand acres onest,' said old Joe, mournfully You see, two of the boys came in one day from an Injun hunt without any shoes, and off red me their titles to the two leagues just below here for a pair of boots'

'For a pair of boots!' I cried out

'Yes, for a pair of boots for each league!'

'But why, on earth, didn't you take it? They'd be worth a hundred thousand dollars to day. Why didn't you give them the boots?'

'Just 'cause I didn't have the boots to give,' said old Joe, as he took another chew of tobacco, quite as contented as if he owned two leagues of land'

☞A few mornings since, one of our lawyers was startled from his dreams of rich clients and fat fees by a loud knocking at his office door He opened the door, when a 'gentleman of Africa,' commonly known as Mariposa Jack, stood before him.

'Look here. Judge,' said he, 'I wants your 'pinion on a law pint.'

'Well, go on'

'S'pose a man brings some eggs to town, and hires anoder nigger to sell, an' dat nigger can't do it, and he gibs 'em to me, an' I lose de money, kin he do any ting wid me?'

The learned counsel, putting on his wisest look, informed him that he knew of no law to punish him

'Yah! yah!' chuckled Jack, 'I know'd he couldn't in the fust place—kase—de eggs was rotten any how—Judge, when duz you want your boots blacked?'

☞A gentleman in New Orleans was agreeably surprised, the other day, to find a plump turkey served up for his dinner, and inquired of his servant how it was obtained 'Why, sa,' replied Blackee 'dat ar turky is been roostin' on our fence tree nites, so dis mornin' I seize him for de rent ob de fence'

'No Beau Yet'—The editor of the Fredericksburg News writes from the Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs, that among the complaints he had there heard, the most reasonable was that of a young lady who uttered the following 'Two weeks here at two dollars a day, besides the bar bill, and no beau yet.'

Of Course—A gentleman sat down to write a deed, and began with 'know all women by these presents' 'You are wrong,' said a bystander, 'it ought to be know all men' 'Very well,' answered the other, 'if all women know it, all men will of course'

☞A correspondent of the Lewiston Journal, writing of the Oldtown Indians, says —'A young lady of the tribe one day in the cars was asked by a rowdy if she would not like to marry, white? 'No' was her ready reply, 'because good white men do not want to marry me, and poor scamps I ke you I won't have" The rowdy left at the next station'

☞A lady, writing upon the subject of men's hearts, says 'When men break their hearts, it is the same as when a lobster breaks one of his claws—another sprout ing immediately, and growing in its place'

☞A duel came off at Schenectady recently between two exquisites They fought with lucifer matches, on the tow path. One of the parties was slightly killed, and the other mortally frightened.

☞A Lunatic once informed his physician, who was classifying cases of insanity, that he had lost his wits by watching a politician, whose course was so crooked that it turned his brain

☞Keenan, of the Greensburg DEMOCRAT, recently received a letter from down South, which, he says, wound up as follows

'I wud like tu see yu down here I think yu wud like it Fishin', huntin', drinkin', lyin', and STEELIN', ar the rekisits fur a grate man down here, and I think yu'd fill the bill egzactly'

☞'What part of de ceremony do de ladies most admire when dey go to church' 'Well Pompey, I can't tell dat What is it?' 'Why, Julius, it's looking at the him's'

Learn all You Can

Somebody has given the following excellent advice, which is worthy of being treasured up by everybody.

'Never omit any opportunity to learn all you can Sir Walter Scott said, even in a stage coach he always found somebody to tell him something he did not know before Conversation is generally more useful than books for the purpose of knowledge It is, therefore, a mistake to be morose or silent when you are among persons whom you think ignorant, for sociability on your part will draw them out and they will be able to teach you something no matter how ordinary their employment Indeed some of the most sagacious remarks are made by persons of this description, respecting their particular pursuit

'Hugh Miller, the famous Scotch geologist, owes not a little to the fame of observation, made when he was a journeyman stone mason, and worked in a quarry—Socrates well said that there is but one good which is knowledge, and but one evil, which is ignorance Every grain of sand helps to make the heap A gold digger takes the smallest nuggets, and is not fool enough to throw them away because he hopes to find a large lump sometime. So, in acquiring knowledge, we should never despise an opportunity, however unpromising If there is a moment's leisure spend it over a good or instructive thing with the first person you meet

I Will!

We like that strong, robust expression No one having uttered it in sincerity, was ever a mean cringing man The pigmies of the world did not trouble him, though they rose in masses to pull him down He speaks and the indomitable will prevails His enemies fall before him. He rides forth a conqueror Would you then be great? Would you be distinguished for your scientific or literary attainments? 'I will' breathing from your lips, and bursting from a great heart, you cannot but prevail Show me the man who never rose higher than a toad stool, and whose influence died with his breath and we will point you to a groping, cringing wretch, who trembled at the approach of a spider and fainted beneath a thunder clowd Let the fires of energy play through your veins, and if your thoughts are directed in the right channels, you will startle the slumbering universe

What Can be Done on an Acre of Ground

The editor of the Maine Cultivator published a few days ago his management of one acre of ground, from which we gather the following result

One third of an acre of corn usually produced thirty bushels of sound corn for grinding, besides some refuse This quantity was sufficient for family use, and for fattening one large or two small hogs—From the same ground he obtained two or three hundred pumpkins, and his family a supply of beans. From the same bed of six rods square he usually obtained sixty bushels of onions, these he sold at $1 per bushel, and the amount brought purchased his flour Thus from one third of an acre and his onion bed he obtained his bread stuffs The rest of the ground was appropriated to all sorts of vegetables for the summer and winter use—potatoes, beets, turnips, cabbage, green corn, peas, beans cucumbers, melons, squashes, &c, with fifty or sixty bushels of beets and carrots for the winter food of a cow Then he had a flower garden, also raspberries, currants and gooseberries, in great variety, and a few choice apple, pear, plum, cherry, peach and quince trees

A Peaceful Township—In Lewis township, Clay county, Indiana, they have a sort of foretaste of the millenium It has within its limits one hundred and seventy families, all white except one, and they keep dark about it There are one hundred and sixty-five voters, and during the last twenty years there has been no fight or quarrel at any election held in the town ship It contains seven school houses, seven road districts, seven bachelors, and seven large men, three churches, three preachers, three pair of twin boys, three fiddlers, three carpenters, three post offices, three crazy men, and three over seventy-five years old There is not a lawyer, doctor, or loafer in it, nor a grocery nor pauper.—A better, friendlier, happier population is not to be found in the State.

What they are Doing in Ohio—Within the past week, the wife of a well known citizen of Zanesville has given birth to five children under the following extraordinary circumstances: She was brought to labor at apparently the proper time and was delivered of two children. Three days after, she was delivered of two more, and on the fourth day she had the fifth child What is the most extraordinary of all this wonderful development, the physicians in consultation pronounced that she had yet a sixth of which to be relieved Can the world equal this?—Cleveland Herald.

The Brain in Childhood—It is a fact well attested by experience, that the memory may be injured by pressing upon it too hardly and continuously in early life A regulated exercise, short of fatigue, is improving to it, but we are bound to refrain from goading it by constant and laborious efforts in early life, and before the instrument is strengthened to its work, or it decays under our hands.—Sir H Holland's Mental Physiology

☞What is better than presence of mind in a railroad accident? Absence of body

Anecdote.

Rev James M Hanson—About 38 years ago this very able preacher (who is well known to many of the aged in Hampshire, having been born and reared there in) traveled the Jefferson Circuit' in Jefferson county, Va One of his then preaching places, in said county, was at the rural residence of 'Father Grantham,' who was not only a very aged soldier of the Cross, but, for upwards of fifty years had been a very pious and acceptable Class leader in the M E Church He was remarkably zealous in the cause of his divine Master, and, during the delivery of sermons, that pleased him, he would not unfrequently make his house ring with hearty 'amens,' and 'amens'

Upon one occasion, when there were, among his auditors, several inebriates, Mr Hanson was particularly eloquent and forcible in his delineations of the evil of drunkenness, holding it up as a mirror before their optics in order that they could see its demoralizing—nay diabolical effects, not only upon themselves, but also upon their families These inebriates being friends and near neighbors of 'Father Grantham,' he was, as might be expected, highly pleased to witness the scoring that his 'brother' Hanson was giving them for their inebriations and inebriating practices indeed, so much so that, during its administration, he could not contain himself—he could not refrain from frequently looking directly at them and, in a tolerably loud voice thus giving vent to his feelings 'Ah! see there now—amen and amen! ha! ha! see there now'

As might be expected, these deep and hearty responses to his sentiments, awakened a smile ever upon the countenance of Mr Hanson, notwithstanding its usual gravity, as well as upon those of the inebriates themselves

Taken at his Word

A French savan, of excellent heart, but somewhat eccentric, lately discharged a servant Another presented himself, and when matters were nearly settled, the gentleman said —Listen, my good fellow, I am not unfair, but I hate to waste words You must understand me at a hint. For example, when I say, 'Give me my razors, to shave me,' you must bring me at the same time warm water, soap, a napkin, in fact, all the accessories of the toilet And so with everything' For some time all went on to a marvel, and our friend congratulated himself on having so excellent a servant.—One day he felt indisposed, and told his man to go for the doctor, who lived a few steps off One hour, two hours passed away No physician, no servant Finally, at the end of three hours, back came the servant. 'Well, sir!' said his master, what made you so long a time gone for the doctor, who lives close at hand?'—'Ma foi,' he replied, 'monsieur remembers that when he gives me an order I must think of all that he will be likely to need. Thus, I started for the doctor, then the surgeon, in case there should be any operation to perform, the nurse, in case she should be needed to pass the night, and the notary, in case monsieur should wish to make his will'

Gallant Conduct

On Sunday night last a fire broke out in a building at the corner of Main and Fourth streets, Cincinnati, in the fourth story of which lived Mr Richard Duncan, periodical dealer When the engine and hook and ladder carriages arrived Mrs Duncan was seen at the window imploring aid, and apparently about to leap to the ground Those assembled shouted to her to keep back and to shut the window, which she did In a few minutes, indeed, a ladder was run up, and Policeman George Carr, a noble fellow and brave officer, ventured up the ladder and into the room at the risk of his life Water was freely played on, and he soon appeared bearing Mrs Duncan. As she was safely brought down the pent up feelings of the crowd burst into loud cheers and clapping of hands George ventured in again and brought out a child which was passed down A third time he entered and brought out the remaining child. Each time he appeared with his precious human freight the crowd gave him hearty cheers Mrs Duncan and the children were nearly suffocated Carr himself was seriously affected, and had to be conveyed to a drug store, where every thing possible was done for his relief.

A New Name for an Old Thing—A colored woman was called to testify in court in this town, on Friday, in the trial of damages by the collision of two carriages on the highway

To the question whether one of the parties was intoxicated, she answered that she did not know, but 'he went as though he had a bill of sale of both sides of the road.'

☞'Now, papa, what is a humbug?'

'It is,' replied papa, 'when ma pretends to be very fond of me, and puts no buttons on my shirt.'

☞'Bill,' said Bob, 'why is that tree called the weeping willow?' 'Cause one of the sneaking, plaguey things grew near our school house and supplied the master with switches.'

Greece—In the Grecian navy there is just about one officer to every one-and a half men, in the army, which numbers nine thousand, all told, there are no less than seventy generals! The royal palace at Athens cost two millions of dollars, for which the Greeks have an immense ugly pile of Pantelic marble, as large as a Buckingham.

Five Cents and a Kiss

Some days ago we stated that a conductor upon the Sixth street Railroad had kissed an attractive female passenger, the kissee submitting to the caress with all the naturalness of a kitten in pursuit of its own tail The conductor who enjoyed this saccharine privilege we will call Mr Smith. Mr Smith having received his fare, and kissed the cherry cheeked passenger, gallantly assisted her to alight from the vehicle As he did this, he was espied by Mr Brown, another conductor on the same line Brown had a brother for whom he wanted a place, and undertook to shovel "down" Mr Smith for this purpose. Mr Brown then lodged a complaint with the officers of the road and laid back to await the result

Mr. Smith was accordingly brought before a tribunal of the Directors, while Brown was present as prosecutor in the case Brown made a formidable charge against Smith, and allowed that kissing lady passengers was something altogether outside the regulations of the road Smith being put upon his defence brought in the kissee, a very pretty young lady, whom he hadn't seen before for some years, at least, and who happened to be his own sister!—The tribunal, at this exposition of the circumstance, acquitted Mr Smith at once, and then discharged Brown for his meanness in reporting is an outrage that which was not only natural but commendable.—Brown now wishes he had stayed out of the shoveling business, and acted like a man—Phila Gazette

Disappointment at a Wedding

A young man, named Leicester, residing in Brooklyn, was to have been married, on Tuesday evening, to a young lady residing in the upper part of Brooklyn At about 6 o'clock he left his place of business and proceeded home, where he procured a carpet bag, and then started for New York to obtain clothing The hour when the wedding ceremonies were to commence arrived, but there was no groom The company became, of course, alarmed, and finally dispersed, full of apprehensions that something wrong had happened His family, greatly alarmed, instituted a thorough search for him, but failed to find him. On Wednesday evening, however, he 'turned up,' stating that on the invitation of two strangers he visited a soda establishment and drank a glass of soda, when he became insensible, and recollected nothing until next morning, when he found himself in Fourth avenue, with a light summer suit on, instead of a black suit which he wore when he left Brooklyn He had two gold watches and $250 in money, which had disappeared with his clothes.

A Romantic Marriage—Quite a romantic wedding took place at Mazomania, in this county, last evening The groom was a returned Californian, who left his wife for the auriferous land about seven years ago, and the bride, the wife that was left. Some time after he reached California—a year or more—his wife received intelligence of his death. Two or three years later she heard that the story was untrue, but that he never intended to return Upon this, with the advice of friends, she obtained a divorce Two or three days since the wanderer returned, and called upon his former wife Old affections revived, faith was plighted anew, and last evening he led her, a blushing bride, to the altar for the second time The happy pair, thus re-paired, proceeded forthwith to the depot, and took the train East on their bridal tour—Madison (Wis) Journal.

A Pleasant Wife to Live With—In the investigation of the Valley Falls poisoning case, one of the witnesses testified that three or four years ago Mrs. Studley intimated to her how she could dispose of her husband The following was Mrs Studley's (then Mrs Jones) advice:

'Mrs Jones then said, 'I would not bear it, he is not able to do anything, and if you are in danger why do you put up with it; give him something to still him down, and don't let your right hand know what your left hand doeth I never let my right hand know what my left hand doeth; by this course I could get along very well.—Give him something that would still him down, you would not be plagued with him but a little while—for it is nobody's business what we do. I should never get along so If there are no friends of his here, so much the better—there would be nobody to question you' I did not ask her what she meant by 'stilling him down.'

The jury returned a verdict to the effect that Mr Studley came to his death from poison administered by his wife, and a warrant was immediately issued for her arrest.

A Joke on the Author of the English Bill—It will be remembered that his portrait was published in Harpers' Weekly some time since A lot of the papers were sent home to English's father, and the old man presented a copy to an illiterate, hard-headed old Democrat, jocularly remarking that there was the picture of the President. The old fellow scanned the picture carefully, for several minutes, and then, with his eyes riveted upon it, and with an energy of utterance that showed conclusively that his remarks were the result of thorough conviction, he said —"I don't like the countenance. Mr. English, as sure as there's a God in heaven, that man will steal!" Of course, the hopeful father fainted away.

The Outrages at New York Quarantine.

The Staten Island mob, after a respite of twenty-four hours, again rallied and finished their work of destruction. There is not now a structure left on the Quarantine grounds. Hospitals, dwellings, storehouses, offices, and piers are all smouldering in ruin. The second assault was even more mad and ruthless than the first. There was a recklessness, a barbarity, in depriving the sick of their last shelter, and leaving them exposed on the ground, to the advancing flames and to the chilling vapors of the night and to the broiling sun of the succeeding day, that would have disgraced savages. No terms can adequately characterize the detestable character of these doings. The time will come when the men who instigated these transactions will be known and shunned by all decent men as worse than Sepoys. But the feeling of indignation against these assailants of sick men and sick women has to struggle with another feeling of amazement at the supineness of the public authorities, by which alone these things were made possible.—Twenty-four hours elapsed after the first attack, and all that while the intention of the mob to renew their abominable work was notorious. Yet not a single soldier nor a police officer was sent to the ground to prevent it. It seems as if the very genius of imbecility had taken possession of every official whose business it was to see that the property of the State was protected.—Had timely precautions been taken there is not a doubt that all the more serious part of this work of wickedness would have been prevented. There is a vast deal of official as well as other culpability in connexion with these outrages, and every offender, whether by malfeasance or by nonfeasance, whether official or individual, should be held to strict account.—New York Courier.

Terrible Adventure.

We extract the following particulars from a private letter: 'About five weeks since, Mr. Lewis S. Munger, of Topeka, Kansas Territory, formerly of this city, while riding on horse back, not far from that place, was terribly injured by his horse becoming enraged. The first intimation he had of it the animal commenced rearing and plunging, but he did not succeed in throwing his rider; the brute actually laid down and rolled over, thereby bringing Mr. Munger to the ground. Quicker than thought the horse sprang upon the rider, planting his knees upon his prostrate victim, and commenced tearing his arms and shoulder in a shocking manner. Mr. Munger says he had no idea of ever getting away from him alive. He however succeeded in getting the horse by the tongue, and thus conquered the tiger. He then mounted the animal and succeeded in reaching home. The left arm was laid bare to the bone, two thirds the way to the elbow. It was only by the best care and skill that his life was saved, as the arm mortified the next day. We are happy to state that Mr. M. is now out of danger.—The horse is one he took with him from Buffalo some ten months since.—Buffalo Republican.

☞Senator Houston spoke at Hempstead, Texas, on the 13th ult. An account of his remarks in the Galveston News closes as follows:

"He said the North had us down; that the foot of the North is on our necks, and that we could not help ourselves. He said the North, in case of resistance by us, could easily take possession of all our forts in the country; that the West alone could take possession of New Orleans, and with an army of two millions could hold us in subjection. He declared himself an advocate of the Union. He said that Yancey, and all men like him, ought to be put in a mad-house. He said he had opposed the Kansas-Nebraska act, and was still opposed to it. He attributed all our troubles to the passage of that act. He argued in support of the Missouri Compromise, and said it should never have been repealed."

Death from Morphine.—We have already stated that Prof. John Wilson, of "South Wood School," Talladega, Ala., died on the 22d ult., from taking a dose of morphine, instead of quinine. We have the following particulars:

A valuable servant had a slight chill and the physician directed the family to procure from a drug store a small supply of calomel and quinine. The ordinary dose of quinine was given to the servant and in a few hours she was dead. Mr. Wilson having had a slight chill, the doctor weighed out for him ten grains of quinine—as was supposed—from the same bottle. As soon as it was taken he began to sink and in 20 minutes was unconscious. It was now discovered that, through the mistake of the druggist, morphine had been sent instead of quinine. In eight hours the patient was dead. The affair has created intense excitement at Talladega.

Death from the Use of Morphine.—On Tuesday forenoon the wife of Mr. George Stoddard, of Brookline, (Mass.) having a violent headache, took a dose of morphine in the hope of obtaining relief. She soon became aware that she had taken an over dose, but she feared no serious ill effects, and medical aid was not called in until it was of no avail. She gradually sank and died in the evening.

Death From Poison.—A little child of Mr. Babcock, of Mercer county, Pa., died on Tuesday from drinking a decoction of fly powder, which its mother had prepared and left in a saucer for the purpose of killing flies.

Life in Utah.—A correspondent of the St. Louis Republican tells the following story concerning the condition of the army in Utah: 'Last week the soldiers received their pay, and since then a large number of them have deserted, taking with them some fine mules and citizens' clothing from the camp, without leave. It is feared that those sent in search of them will continue their march to California on their own hook. The soldiers do not like this country—they call it a God-forsaken place. One day it is warm enough in camp to cook a nigger, the next so dusty that they cannot see their breakfast while eating it.'

A Female in Male Attire.—The officers in Covington, Ky., have captured a good looking girl, sixteen years old, who was dressed in male attire, and has been living in the woods near the city for some time, subsisting on stolen poultry and provisions.

Commencement Week.

This is the week for the Commencement exercises at Pennsylvania College and Seminary.

The Board of Directors of the Seminary meet at 9 o'clock on Tuesday; and the annual address before the alumni of the Seminary, will be delivered by the Rev. A. Essick, on Tuesday afternoon, at 1½ o'clock. The Trustees of the College will meet on Wednesday, at 2 o'clock. The exhibition of the Junior Class will take place at 9 o'clock on Wednesday; an address before the Philomathæan Society, by Morton McMichael, Esq., of Philadelphia, at 2½ o'clock; and the address before the Alumni of the College, by Rev. T. Stork, D. D of Philadelphia, in the evening. The exercises of the Annual Commencement of the College on Thursday morning.

☞Rev. Dr. SCHAEFFER preaches in German, every other Sabbath, in McConaughy's Hall, at 10, A. M. Next Sabbath will be his day for services.

☞Rev Mr. KEISER was installed yesterday week, as Pastor of St. James Lutheran Church in this place.

Property Sold.

Mr. David Beecher, a few days ago, sold his farm in Franklin township, containing 152 acres, to Mr Michael Rice, of Franklin county, for $50 an acre. This sale shows that property is "looking up."

The Farm, Mountain-land, &c. of Charles McKenrick, part in Franklin and part in Menallen townships, was sold on the 25th ult., by John Hoover, Assignee, at public sale, for $6,020—Andrew McKenrick purchaser.

☞The Hanover Spectator is bragging about two tomatoes on one stem, which weighed jointly two pounds. Why, our friend Geo. Buehler, of this place, exhibited to us, a day or two ago, two tomatoes on one stem, which weighed three pounds and six ounces! You will please notice, friend Spectator, and cease bragging about your trifling two pound articles.

☞Dysentery, of a virulent character, has prevailed to a very considerable degree in the eastern part of this county, for two or three weeks past, principally among young children. We notice the death of two children of Mr. John Felix, of Mountpleasant township, who were buried in one grave, at the Chapel, on the 5th—Joseph, aged 14, and Ann, aged 7; also of Ellen Rittace, aged 11 months; Mary Ellen Robert, aged about 21 months; John Dennis Eline, aged 11 months and 21 days; a number also in and near Hanover, one of whom was John Willie, son of Dr O'Neal, of Baltimore, and grandson of Henry Wirt, aged 6 years and 11 months.

Country Banks.

The Philadelphia Banks, according to agreement, commenced, a few days ago, taking the notes of a large number of Country Banks on deposit. Amongst them is the Bank of Gettysburg—so that our notes are now at par in Philadelphia.

☞We regret to learn that our clever young friend, EDWARD MINTURN, for a number of years well and favorably known as a student in our College, died at Philadelphia on Monday evening last, in the 28th year of his age.

☞Capt. Eichelberger, having declined the nomination of the People's party of York County, for the Senate, the County Committee nominated Daniel Kraber, Esq. of York for the situation.

☞An affray occurred near Waynesboro' on Sunday evening, Sept. 5th, in which a man named John Osborn, was shot dead by two brothers, Daniel and David Funk. The dispute arose from Osborn carrying water from Funk's spring. Both the brothers have been arrested, and are now in prison.

A Compliment.

The Chambersburg "Independent," a paper neutral in politics, has the following paragraph in his last paper:

"EDWARD MCPHERSON, Esq., better known to the corps editorial as "Ned" McPherson, who has humbled himself so much as to consent to serve in Congress, gave us a call last week. He has opened the campaign vigorously, and has high hopes of success. We doubt very much if a more talented and accomplished man has been nominated by his party in this State."

☞This is the way our talented young candidate is talked of both in and out of the District. It gives us pleasure to copy the following article from Judge BAKER's pen, the Editor of the Perry Freeman, who is in another Congressional district:

"EDWARD MCPHERSON, Esq., is the People's nominee for Congress in the "Horse-Shoe district," surrounding our district, composed of Adams, Franklin, Bedford, Fulton and Juniata counties. No better candidate has been presented in the State. No man in the commonwealth is better posted up in State or National affairs than he is. He is a gentleman of talents and education; indeed, in the proper application of the term, he is "a solid man;" and the people of his district would not only confer an honor upon themselves, but also upon the State at large, by electing him.

We became acquainted with Mr. M'P. in 1851, and have marked and admired his zealous and patriotic labors for the prosperity of the State ever since that time."

☞Mr. MCPHERSON, the People's candidate for Congress, addressed the citizens of Bedford county, at Bedford, on the 31st ult. The Inquirer says, "his address was able, lucid and argumentative, and was listened to with marked attention. All in the meeting were pleased with the speaker, and the unanimous opinion was, that he will make an able and useful member of Congress." He adds, "This gentleman has been in our County for several days, and has made the acquaintance of very many persons from all parts of the country. He takes well with the people, and as he advocates the protection of their dearest interests, they will not forget him on the second Tuesday of October next."

☞MORTON MCMICHAEL, Esq., who addresses the Philomathæan Society of the College on Wednesday, has a very high reputation as a public lecturer. He is the editor of the North American, of Philadelphia, and his ability as an editor and public speaker is acknowledged by all who have heard him. The public may expect an interesting address.

☞The "Blues" had their Encampment on the Banks of Marsh-creek on Thursday and Friday, and, we learn, had quite a delightful time. Visitors from town and country cheered them night and day. They struck their tents on Friday evening, and gave our citizens a salute on their return. The 'Citizens' Band" added much interest to the whole affair.

☞It always gives us pleasure to note honest, upright action in individuals—and one of this character occurred on Monday last. Sheriff LIGHTNER, on his way home from the lower end of the county, on Monday last, lost his pocket-book containing about $145, and some valuable papers. It was picked up by two young men, from Cumberland county, Abner Brindel and Reuben R. Weikert, who promptly gave information of what they had found, and the Sheriff received it the same evening.

Election.

On Monday last the following gentlemen were elected Managers of the "Adams County Mutual Fire Insurance Company," for the ensuing year:

Geo. Swope,	M. Eichelberger,
D. A. Buehler,	A. F. Gitt,
Jacob King,	John Wolford,
A. Heintzelman,	H. A. Picking,
Rob't McCurdy,	J. Aughinbaugh,
S. R. Russell,	John Horner,
D. McCreary,	R. G. McCreary,
Thos. A. Marshall,	Andrew Polley,
S. Fahnestock,	John Picking,
W. B McClellan,	J. R. Irish.
Wm. B. Wilson,

The Board will meet to-day, at 10 o'clock, A. M., to elect officers, &c.

☞A young man, named Leonard Stouch, of York, aged about 21 years, was killed at the Railroad Depot in that place on the 5th inst. He was engaged in shifting cars from one track to another, and was caught between the "bumpers" of the Engine and one of the cars, and crushed in a most horrible manner. Both his thighs were fractured, and he was otherwise internally injured. He lived but a few hours. He was a young man of good character, and highly respected.

☞Mr. Burnhart Kousler, an old, respectable and wealthy resident of York county, hung himself a few days ago in his barn. He and his wife have been living on bad terms for several years, and he has several times threatened to destroy himself in consequence—and finally did so. He was about 82 years of age!

☞The Democratic Conferees of the Cumberland, York and Perry District were in session up to 4 o'clock on Thursday morning, at Bridgeport, balloting for a candidate without success—each County adhering to its man. After the 109th ballot, they adjourned to meet on the 16th (Thursday next). President Buchanan is very anxious to have Dr. Ahl re-nominated, and the Harrisburg Telegraph says that, in order to accomplish it, a special messenger was sent from Washington, who attended the meetings in person all day on Wednesday!

☞The Compiler charges upon us a purpose to "deceive," in quoting the remarks of the Philadelphia Press complimentary to Mr. MCPHERSON, as "Democratic" authority. Well, we have been in the Editorial business for more than forty years, and profess to some little acquaintance with the record of prominent politicians. Our earliest recollections of Col. FORNEY, the editor of the Press, associate him with the most ultra of the Democratic politicians—first as editor of the Lancaster Intelligencer—then of the Philadelphia Pennsylvanian—then of the Washington Union—always a Democrat of the "first water," and the devoted personal friend of Mr. Buchanan.—No man stood higher in the affections and confidence of the party than Col. FORNEY. He was elected by a Democratic Congress to the lucrative post of Clerk of the House, as a reward for his political services, and only about 18 months ago, the Compiler and all the Democratic journals of the State vied with each other in bitterness of invective, denouncing the "traitors" Lebo, Weyeneller, and Maneer, Democratic members of the Legislature, for refusing to vote for this same Col. FORNEY for the U. S. Senate!

We believe Col Forney differs at present from the Compiler and other lights of the Democratic party, in at least this one point. The former insists that true Democracy does not consist in obsequious obeisance to the behests of Mr. Buchanan, or meekly wearing the collar prescribed by his officials.—The latter insists that it does, and denounces Forney as a "traitor." We shall not undertake to say which is right.

☞The Compiler attempts to get out of Mr. Will's "extra pay" business, by charging that Maj. MUSSELMAN stands upon the same footing, on the record of the previous session. We do not know that this, even if true, can help Mr. WILL. Two wrong can never make a right. Besides, the Democracy last year bitterly denounced Maj. Musselman for consenting to receive the extra pay voted to the members, although nobody dared to charge him with voting for it. It must, indeed, be true, that "circumstances alter cases," if they can now support Mr. WILL for doing what last year they denounced. But this is not all. The Compiler misstates the facts, when it says that "Mr. WILL voted against the additional pay to members." When forced to record his vote by the call of the yeas and nays on Mr. Nill's motion to strike out the provision for $200 extra compensation to the "present members," he did vote aye, with a minority. But the record does not show that Mr. Will at any time voted against that portion of the Act which permanently increases the salary of members from $500 to $700. The Journal of the House shows that he was present on the day the bill finally passed, with the extra pay of $200 and the $700 salary provisions in it, and did not in any way oppose it, not even taking the trouble to call the yeas and nays! The bill passed finally, so far as the record shows, without opposition, and Mr. WILL subsequently took the $200 extra, with his regular salary of $500, $16 50 mileage, and $25 Stationery—making a total of $741.50. These are the facts of the case.

☞The Compiler, after belaboring Mr. READ, the People's candidate for Supreme Judge, by reason of his alleged "Free-trade" antecedents, objects that Mr. MCPHERSON, our candidate for Congress, "held the position of Secretary to the (Free-trade) Wilmot State Committee a year ago" A word or two will dispose of this matter. If JOHN M. READ or DAVID WILMOT at any time held "Free-trade" opinions, it was when they were in full communion with the Democratic party. In abandoning that party, they of course abandoned the political heresies which characterized it. Both Mr. READ and Mr. WILMOT are now sound on the Tariff question, supporting the great doctrine of Protection for American labor, as shown by their published letters, which the Compiler cannot have overlooked. Of course, the silly implication that Mr. MCPHERSON must be tinctured with Free tradeism, by reason of his support of Judge Wilmot, must fall to the ground. We are not surprised that the Democratic leaders should sedulously labor to deceive the masses on this Tariff question. They are afraid of it. The fraud perpetrated by the celebrated "Kane letter" in 1844, by which the Democracy were made to believe that James K. Polk was "a better Tariff-man" than HENRY CLAY (!) has surely not been forgotten.

A Speculation.—It is stated that the Washington aqueduct has already cost the government five millions of dollars, and is not half completed. Here is one item of the expense:

'There was a little strip of land in Rockville, Maryland. It was worth less than $100, being made up of nothing but a swamp, with bull frogs to cover it. It had to be taken for the aqueduct, and to make things right all around, the sum of $150,000 was paid for it.'

Good Suggestion.—The Philadelphia News suggests that inasmuch as the Government has contracted with 'Scotch parties' for water pipes for the Washington aqueduct at an advance of eighty-five cents a ton over American prices, it should also contract with the same parties for the supply of water, instead of paying one hundred and fifty thousand dollars for the use of Potomac water, as it is about to do. The advantage would be that the pipes could be brought over ready filled.

IMPORTANT CORRESPONDENCE.

MR. DURBORAW ON THE "EXTRA PAY" AND THE TONNAGE TAX.

☞The annexed correspondence has been handed to us for publication, by Mr. RESSER, who, it will be seen, at the suggestion of sundry persons in the Eastern section of the County, addressed Mr. DURBORAW, our candidate for Assembly, desiring to have his views on the "Extra Pay" and Tonnage Tax. We are glad to find our candidate orthodox on both points. The correspondence will be read with interest by the people of the County—especially Taxpayers:

EAST BERLIN, Sept. 3, 1858.

SAMUEL DURBORAW, Esq.

Dear Sir:—Since you have been placed in nomination as the People's candidate for Assembly, the question has frequently been asked, what course you would pursue, if elected, in regard to the extra $200 added to the salaries of members of the Legislature. Are you in favor of its repeal? Another question will be brought before the next Legislature of vital interest to Taxpayers—the present Tonnage Tax on Railroads. Are you in favor of retaining this Tax? The strong desire evinced by the tax-paying community to see our State Debt reduced by economy, retrenchment, and a judicious application of the revenue derived from taxation and otherwise to that end, is my apology for soliciting an early answer to the above interrogatories.

As I write in behalf of numerous friends, who have spoken to me on the subject, I shall ask the privilege of communicating to them your reply.

I remain, most respectfully, your friend and fellow-citizen.

JACOB RESSER.

MOUNTJOY, Sept 8, 1858.

JACOB RESSER, Esq.:

Dear Sir:—Your's of the 3d inst. is at hand, desiring my views upon the points suggested, and soliciting an early answer. I have no hesitation in answering promptly, and without reserve, affirmatively to both your inquiries. The last Legislature not only voted an extra compensation of $200 to each of its members, in addition to the compensation prescribed by law, but enacted, as I find by reference to the Pamphlet laws, that "hereafter each member of the General Assembly shall receive the sum of $700 per annum in lieu of the salary now fixed by law." The policy of legislators voting themselves additional compensation for services they had agreed, in accepting office, to render for a specified sum, is so manifestly wrong, that under no circumstances could I countenance it. If a public officer has a right to vote himself, or take from the public Treasury $200 additional to his legal salary, he has a right to vote for and take $1,000 additional, or any other amount, and there is no knowing where the matter may stop. It is proper that the people should stamp all such legislation with indignant rebuke, and I am not surprised that they should be solicitous as to the views of those who become candidates for legislative office. As to the compensation hereafter to be given to members of the Legislature, I think the Act of last session increasing their compensations to $700 per annum, was unwise, and, if elected, I shall certainly vote for its repeal, and use my influence to have the old compensation of $500 restored.

In regard to the Tonnage tax, I can see no good reason why the State should be asked to give up the revenue accruing from that source. To do so, would necessarily devolve upon the Tax-payers, already subjected to heavy taxation, the additional burden of making up the loss. Our taxes are heavy enough, and the efforts of our legislators ought to be directed to a reduction of them, and a gradual extinguishment of the State Debt, by enforcing a rigid economy in all the departments of Government.—Holding these views, I shall regard it my duty, if elected, to vote against a repeal of the Tonnage tax, unless I can be satisfied, that a repeal would bring more money into the Treasury of the State.

I have answered your interrogatories fully, and I trust satisfactorily. Having no views of public policy to conceal from the public eye, you are, of course, at liberty to make such use of this correspondence as you may think proper.

With much respect, I subscribe myself
Your's, &c.
SAMUEL DURBORAW.

The Africans to be Returned.—It is stated that the Government authorities have decided upon the course to be pursued with regard to the Africans captured on board the brig Putnam by the United States brig-of-war Dolphin. The steam frigate Niagara has been ordered to be got in readiness to proceed to Charleston to convey the negroes from thence to the coast of Africa. She will be commanded by Commodore Chauncey.

☞The American Colonization Society has proposed to the government to take care of the captured Africans on their arrival at Liberia and subsist them one year for $50,000; and, in the meantime, send them to school, and teach them how by industrial pursuits to support themselves after that period. There is every indication that the proposition will be accepted. The Secretary of the Interior will forthwith authorize the purchase of necessary clothing and blankets to make them comfortable during the voyage.

☞The Atlantic telegraph jubilee at Albany, New York, was a splendid affair. In the evening at least fifteen hundred firemen were in the line, and over a hundred tar barrels blazed in their path, and six thousand Roman candles, each containing six balls, making in all a storm of thirty-six thousand balls, were discharged in State street.

☞Gov. Banks has been re-nominated for Governor, by acclamation, by the Republicans of Massachusetts.

☞The yellow fever is still raging at New Orleans, and there are from 80 to 100 deaths per day.

Vermont Election.

The election in the State of Vermont, for Governor, members of Congress, and Legislature, took place on Tuesday last, and the Republicans have swept the field by increased majorities. The majority for Mr. Hall, the Republican candidate for Governor, exceeds 16,000. All the Republican candidates for Congress in the State are elected; and 111 Republicans have been elected to the House of Representatives from 131 towns. Locomptonism is at a low ebb in that region.

Comet of 1858.

This remarkable comet (says the Albany Argus) is now visible to the naked eye, as predicted by Dr. GOULD some weeks ago. It is now only one hundred and forty millions of miles distant and is very rapidly approaching the earth, and already shows through a common opera-glass a well defined tail. We are told that during the first week in October the comet will be of the most striking brightness, possibly the largest of the century, and at that time will be seen near Arcturus, perhaps even surpassing that brilliant star in splendor. It is now visible for about an hour after sunset and an hour before sunrise in a line with the two stars called the Pointers, and forming nearly a right angle between these and Arcturus. It is now best seen at four o'clock in the morning.

The Weather and Yellow Fever at New Orleans.—On the 3d inst. the weather was excessively hot at New Orleans, and the yellow fever on the increase. The Crescent, of the 4th, says:

The fever this year is characterized by a new development—that of attacking creoles and old acclimated people whose birth and continued residence in New Orleans has always exempted them from its attacks. In this respect, the fever is far worse than it was in 1853. A number of creole citizens having died, there is much alarm existing in that part of the population, many of whom hold to the opinion that the fever is not the ordinary yellow fever.

☞The Conferees of the Congressional district at present represented by Hon J. Rufus Edie, met at Johnstown on Tuesday last, and on the 30th ballot nominated Steele Blair, Esq., of Blair county.

☞We call attention to the advertisement of Winchester & Co., Philadelphia. Their reputation has long been established, and is of the first order.

☞Gov. King, of New York, on Tuesday last, on account of the destruction of the Quarantine buildings at Staten Island, and the inefficiency of the Police to check the mob, issued his proclamation declaring the County of Richmond in a state of insurrection, releasing the civil authorities from their interference, and detailing a military force of sufficient strength to check the mob, and bring the ringleaders to justice. Some arrests have been made—For the safety of society, it is to be hoped an example will be made of them.

☞The captain of the slave brig, lately captured with 318 slaves on board, and who is to be tried at Charleston for his life, (the slave-trade being piracy by the law), is named Townsend, and is a resident of Providence, R. I, where he has a family. He is said to be 33 years of age, a tall, resolute looking man, with light hair, large red whiskers, and is very intelligent, and of excellent address and manner. Bad luck in his legitimate voyages, he says, forced him into the slave-trade. This is about the worst luck he ever had. He brought 470 from Africa, but 160 died at sea.

A CAPITAL RETORT.—"I knew Mr Lincoln in early life. He commenced his life as a grocer."—Douglas.

"The only difference between Judge Douglas and myself on the grocery question is, that while I have stood on one side of the counter, he has been equally attentive to the other."—Lincoln.

☞John Nehastie, a Bohemian, but one month in this country, has been arrested in Chicago for killing his daughter Marie, five years old, to save her from starvation, a fate which had overtaken a younger child a day or two before.

The Prairie State in a Fever.—The Douglas-Lincoln war rages fiercely on the Western prairies. The combatants begin to lose temper, and hurl epithets which are neither polite nor savory. It is well that the hot weather has passed, or the contest might cause a terrible conflagration.

Bishop James Shot.—Bishop James, of the M. E church, had a narrow escape from death in Indianapolis, Indiana, on the 2d inst. He was passing along the street from the residence of Bishop Ames, when he was struck in the face by a shot from a gun carelessly fired by some boy, and painfully wounded. The shot entered the left cheek, and penetrated the side of the nose. A surgeon soon extracted the shot.

Death from Eating Matches.—A girl, three years old, daughter of Mr. Henry Baker, of Hartwick, Mass., died on Thursday last, from the effects of eating the ends of three dozen friction matches. Such cases are becoming quite frequent, and more care should be used in the disposal of these dangerous articles.

☞A correspondent of the Providence Journal says that in ninety-nine cases out of every hundred cranberries applied as a poultice will effectually cure the erysipelas. There is not an instance known where it has failed to effect a cure when faithfully applied before the sufferer was in a dying state.—Two or three applications generally do the work.

The Next Congressmen.

Most important results, says the Bucks County Intelligencer, depend upon the political complexion of the next House of Representatives. The period of its existence will be a most eventful one in the domestic and foreign relations of the country.

It is certain that during that time Kansas will apply for admission under a regularly adopted free-state constitution; and almost equally certain that such application will be refused by the Democratic party, should it obtain a majority in Congress.—The signs of the times all point to that result.

The corruption and prodigality of the Democratic party, as at present constituted, is a strong ground of objection. If a House of Representatives concurring with the Administration is elected, this state of things will go on unchecked, and perhaps abetted by Congress. We want REFORM.

Our domestic industry is languishing for want of support, and the fostering care of the government. Low duties have induced such heavy importations that American manufacturers have been obliged to close their doors, leaving thousands of industrious workmen without the means of subsistence. Our democratic government has done nothing for us, and we can expect nothing.

We must, therefore, go to work and change the politics of the House of Representatives. The democratic party has been faithless to the interests of the country, and must be ejected from power. Its professions have been belied, and its very heart eaten out by those who represent it in the high places of the nation.

To accomplish the defeat of the party in the next House, it is essential that every district should do its utmost to secure a proper representation. Let those which now send opposition members, not fail to do so again; while such as now send administration members should rid themselves of the burden, and elect members who will truly represent the interests of their constituents.

☞On Tuesday last a collision occurred on the Hudson River Railroad, at the Fishkill station, between two cattle trains, by which George Hayward, an engineer, and J. B. Boswell, a cattle drover from Indiana, were killed, and several persons injured.—One of the trains having stopped for some purpose, the other one, not having received warning in time, came up behind and ran into the first one, making a complete wreck of several cars. Two engines were coupled to the rear train, which, being thrown from the track, ran into a large machine shop and were broken to pieces, after throwing down, in their progress, the large brick chimney of the establishment. The cars of the second train were dashed forward, and some lay piled one on top of the other as high as the second story windows of the shop. Quite a large number of cattle and hogs were killed, and many others so badly injured that it was an act of humanity to kill them and put an end to their sufferings. Several large bullocks lay on top of the debris, and one ox, of mammoth proportions, was thrown half way into a second-story window of the shop. The damage by the accident is estimated at $10,000.

Falling off in Emigration.—For the first time in the history of emigration to the United States from the British Islands there is now a preponderance in the movement towards Australia and Canada over that towards these shores. The official returns made up in England, show that for the first three months of 1858 the aggregate number of emigrants from Great Britain was 19,000, of whom 8,200 were bound for the United States, against 16,726 for the corresponding period of 1857. Of the rest 9,867 were for the Australian colonies.—Emigration for all parts of the world has not been at so low a figure for fifteen years past as it now is. It attained its maximum figure in 1853, when it reached 371,725. This was reduced to less than one-half in 1857, when the emigration only reached some 180,000.

A Land Forger Arrested.—John C. Bishop, said to be an able lawyer, committed frauds in Chicago to the amount of $100,000, and successfully eluded capture since April last. A large reward was offered for his arrest, and he was taken on the 15th ult., while crossing an Iowa prairie. He was on foot leading a horse upon which was strapped a large bundle containing his papers. He was miserably dressed, his feet being encased in ragged moccasins tied up with thongs of bark.—His clothes were dilapidated, and tied and sewed up with the same material. Had upon his head an old palm leaf hat. His beard and hair were very long, showing that he had avoided settlements, and had probably been endeavoring to escape detection by wandering upon the frontier for a long time.

Lager Beer.—We learn from the Baltimore papers that on Thursday week four hundred and eighty barrels of lager beer were tapped upon the Steuben Festival grounds near that city! There was no excessive drunkenness and no disorder during the day.

A Sad Picture.—The Cleveland Plaindealer of the 13th ultimo gives a pitiable picture of a large number of laboring men and their families in that city. It says the monster Starvation is knocking at their doors. At least this is so with some of the working-men. These men are not beggars, nor loafers nor sots. Hundreds are seeking work but cannot find any.

Fatal Shooting.—Dr. Rogers, a married man, was shot at Portland, Ky., by Mr. Alfred Whitlow, a few days since, for attempting, it is alleged, to seduce Miss Whitlow, quite a young lady, sister of the shooter. The prosecuting attorney, Mr. Elliott, declined prosecuting Whitlow, saying that he and every other honorable man would have done the same thing under the circumstances.

Would Know More than their Masters.—A Virginia editor declares himself opposed to having niggers taught to read. There is an objection to their being thus taught in the Accomac and some other districts of Virginia—the niggers would have the advantage of their masters. And perhaps many a white man in these districts would have the unsophisticated innocence of his soul polluted by the newspapers, if he had only a schooled nigger to read them to him.—Louisville Journal.

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, in and by the Act of the General Assembly of this State, entitled 'An act to regulate the General Elections of this Commonwealth,' enacted on the 2d of July, 1839, it is enjoined on me to give Public Notice of such Election to be held, and to enumerate in such notice what officers are to be elected: I, ISAAC LIGHTNER, Sheriff of the County of Adams, do, therefore, hereby give this public notice to the Electors of the said County of Adams, that a will be held in said County, on the Second Tuesday of October next, (the 12th,) in the several Districts, composed of the following Townships, viz:

In the First district, composed of the Borough of Gettysburg and the township of Cumberland, at the Court-house in Gettysburg.

In the Second district, composed of the township of Germany, at the house now occupied by Peter Lingenfelter, in the town of Littlestown, in the township of Germany.

In the Third district, composed of the township of Oxford, at the house of Widow Miley, in the town of New Oxford.

In the Fourth district, composed of the townships of Latimore and Huntington, at the house of Caleb B. Hildebrand, in the township of Huntington.

In the Fifth district, composed of the townships of Hamiltonban and Liberty, at the Public School-house in Millerstown.

In the Sixth district, composed of the township of Hamilton, at the house now occupied by Henry Hoffman, in the town of East Berlin.

In the Seventh District, composed of that part of Menallen not included in the Ninth District, at the public school-house in the town of Bendersville.

In the Eighth district, composed of the township of Straban, at the house of Jacob L. Grass, in Hunterstown.

In the Ninth District, composed of the township of Franklin, and that part of Menallen mentioned in act of last session, at the house of Joseph Bennet, in Franklin township.

In the Tenth district, composed of the township of Conowago, at the house of John Busbey, in McSherrystown.

In the Eleventh district, composed of the township of Tyrone, at the house of Allen M. Cook, in Heidlersburg.

In the Twelfth district, composed of the township of Mountjoy, at the house of Victor Hause, in said township.

In the Thirteenth district, composed of the Township of Mountpleasant, at the public School-house, in said township, situate at the cross roads, the one leading from Oxford to the Two Taverns, the other from Hunterstown to Hanover.

In the Fourteenth district, composed of the township of Reading, at the public School house in Hampton.

In the Fifteenth district, composed of the Borough and township of Berwick, at the public School house in Abbottstown.

In the Sixteenth district, composed of the township of Freedom, at the house of Nicholas Moritz, in said township.

In the Seventeenth district, composed of the township of Union, at the house of Enoch Lefever, in said township.

In the Eighteenth district, composed of the township of Butler, at the public School-house in Middletown, in said township.

At which time and places will be elected

One Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania;
One Canal Commissioner;
One Member of Congress, to represent the District composed of the Counties of Adams, Franklin, Bedford, Fulton and Juniata;
One Associate Judge of the Courts of Adams county;
One Member of Assembly;
One County Commissioner;
One County Auditor;
One Director of the Poor; and
One Coroner.

Particular attention is directed to the Act of Assembly, passed the 27th day of February, 1849, entitled 'An act relative to voting at elections in Adams, Dauphin, York, Lancaster, Cumberland, Bradford, Centre, Greene, and Erie, viz:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same—that it shall be lawful for the qualified voters of the counties of Adams, Lancaster, Dauphin, York, Franklin, Cumberland, Bradford, Centre, Greene, and Erie, from and after the passage of this act, to vote for all candidates for the various offices to be filled at an election on one slip or ticket: Provided, The office for which every candidate is voted for, shall be designated, as required by the existing laws of this Commonwealth.

SECTION 2. That any fraud committed by any person voting in the manner above prescribed, shall be punished by the existing laws of this Commonwealth.

Attention is also directed to the following section of the Act of the General Assembly of the session of 1851, entitled 'An act to provide for the election of Judges of the several Courts of this Commonwealth.'

SECTION 4. That the election for Judges shall be held and conducted in the several election districts in the same manner in all respects as elections for representatives are or shall be held and conducted, and by the same judges, inspectors, and other officers; and the provisions of the act of the General Assembly, entitled "An Act relating to the elections of this Commonwealth," approved the second day of July, one thousand eight hundred and thirty nine, and its several supplements, and all other like laws, as far as the same shall be in force and applicable, shall be deemed and taken to apply to the election for judges: Provided, That the aforesaid electors shall vote for judges of the Supreme Court on a separate piece of paper.

ALSO—In and by virtue of the 34th section of the act aforesaid, every person, excepting Justices of the Peace, who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the government of the United States, or of any city or incorporated district, whether a commissioned officer or otherwise, a subordinate officer or agent, who is, or shall be employed under the legislative, executive or judiciary departments of this State, or of the United States, or of any city or incorporated district, and also that every member of Congress and of the State Legislature, and of the Select or Common Council of any City, or Commissioner of any incorporated district, is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the same time, the office or appointment of Judge, Inspector, or Clerk of any election of this Commonwealth, and that no Judge, Inspector, or other officer of any such election, shall be eligible to any office to be then voted for.

ALSO—That in the fourth section of the Act of Assembly entitled "An Act relating to executions, and for other purposes," approved April 16th, 1840, it is enacted that the aforesaid 13th section "shall not be construed, as to prevent any militia officer or borough officer, from serving as judge, inspector or clerk, at any general or special election in this Commonwealth."

And in and by an Act of the General Assembly of this State, passed the 2d day of July, 1839, it is directed that the Inspectors and Judges be at the places of their districts on the day of the General Election aforesaid, at 9 o'clock in the forenoon, to do and perform the several duties required and enjoined on them in and by the same act.

And be it further directed, in and by the act of the General Assembly of this State aforesaid, that one of the Judges of each of the different districts aforesaid, who shall have the charge of the certificates of the number of votes which shall have been given for each candidate for the different offices then and there voted for at their respective districts, shall meet on the third day after the election, which shall be on Friday the 15th of October aforesaid, at the Court-house in the Borough of Gettysburg, then and there to make a fair statement and certificate of the number of votes which shall have been given at the different districts in the county of Adams for any person for the offices aforesaid.

Reaping & Mowing Machine,
FOR 1858,

IS offered to the farmers of Adams County, as the BEST REAPER IN THE WORLD and the best Combined Reaper and Mower, and is so warranted—having received the Great Council Medal at the exhibition of all nations in London in 1851—the grand gold Medal of Honor at the great French Exhibition at Paris, in 1855; and also the United States National Agricultural Society at their Fair at Syracuse, New York, in 1857, awarded to C. H. M'Cormick a Gold Medal and Diploma for the best reaper, after a severe test in heavy tangled rye, over hilly and uneven ground, in competition with 23 other Machines, and an indefinite number of smaller Premiums at State and County Fairs. Farmers needing a Reaper or Mower will find it to their advantage to try M'Cormick's, as they can have one put up in competition with any other and no obligation asked but to keep the machine that proves best after a fair trial in all kinds of grain and grass.

Four horse machines, full 6 feet cut; two horse, 5 feet cut. For particulars see large bills, or apply personally or by letter to the undersigned, in Fairfield, or David Schwartz, in Littlestown, or any person in the county having a M'Cormick Machine.

J. S. WITHEROW,
Agent for Adams County.

A Card from Dr. James M. Jarrett, of the New-York Lung Infirmary.—My connection for the past eight years with the above Institution, as Chief Physician, and a twelve years' course of steady devotion to the Cure of Pulmonary Consumption and its kindred diseases, together with my unrivalled opportunities and advantage of pathological research—aided not a little by a perfect system of Medical Inhalation—has enabled me to arrive at a decisive, direct, and successful course of treatment for the positive and radical cure of all diseases of the Throat, Lungs, and Air-Passages. By Inhalation, the vapor and curative properties of medicines are directly addressed to the diseased organs and the integument. I do not advise the use of Medical Inhalation of any kind, to the exclusion of general treatment; and although I consider it a useful adjuvant in the proper management of those fearful and often fatal diseases, yet I deem it very necessary that each patient should have the benefit of both general and local treatment. The success of my treatment in the above diseases, and the high character of the Institution over which I have so long had the honor to preside, are too well known to need any eulogy or comment from me. At the solicitation of many private and personal friends, through whose philanthropic aid the above charity has been long and liberally supported, and after due consideration, I have concluded to make such arrangements as will bring the benefits of my experience and treatment within the reach of all, and not confine myself, as heretofore, to those only who entered the Infirmary, or who were able to visit me at my office. Hoping therefore that the arrangement will give entire satisfaction, both to my professional brethren and the public, I would respectfully announce in conclusion, that I can now be consulted personally or by letter, on all diseases as above, and that the medicines, the same as used in the Institution, prepared to suit each individual case, Inhaling Vapors, Medical Inhalers, &c. &c., will be forwarded by express to any part of the United States or the Canadas: TERMS—My terms of treatment by letter are as follows, viz.: $12 per month for each patient, which will include medicine sufficient for one month's use; also, Inhaling Vapor, and an Inhaling Apparatus. Payment as follows: $6 to be paid to Express Agent on receipt of the box of Medicine, and the balance $6 at the expiration of the month, if the patient be cured or is entirely satisfied with the treatment. Patients, by giving a full history of their case, and their symptoms in full, can be treated as well by letter as by personal examination. Patients availing themselves of Dr. Jarrett's treatment may rely upon immediate relief, as he seldom has to treat a case over thirty days. Letters for advice promptly answered. For further particulars address

JAMES M. JARRET, M.D.,
No. 820 Broadway, cor. Twelfth St., N. Y.

P. S.—Physicians and others visiting the city are respectfully invited to call at the Infirmary, where many interesting cases can be witnessed, and where one improved apparatus for the inhalation of medical vapor can be seen and inspected.

McREA'S CELEBRATED LIQUID GLUE,
THE GREAT ADHESIVE.

MOST useful article ever invented, for house, store and office, surpassing in utility every other glue, gum, mucilage, paste or cement ever known, always ready for application, adhesive on paper, cloth, leather, furniture, porcelain, china, marble or glass.

For manufacturing Fancy Articles, Toys, etc., it has no superior, not only possessing greater strength than any other known article, but adheres more quickly, leaving no stain where the parts are joined. Never fails.

Within the last three years upwards of 250,000 bottles of this justly celebrated LIQUID GLUE have been sold, and the great convenience which it has proved in every case, has deservedly secured for it a demand which the manufacturer has found it, at times, difficult to meet; acknowledged by all who have used it, that its merits are far above any similar article or imitation ever offered to the public.

☞This GLUE is extensively counterfeited—observe the label "McRea's Liquid Glue, the Great Adhesive." Take no other.

TWENTY-FIVE CENTS A BOTTLE.

Manufactured and Sold, Wholesale and Retail, by WM. C. McREA, Stationer, No. 907 Chestnut St., Philadelphia.

A BEAUTIFUL HEAD OF
RICH GLOSSY HAIR,
Completely Preserved to the Greatest Age.

And who that is grey would not have it restored to former color; or bald, but would have the growth restored, or troubled with dandruff and itching but would have it removed, or troubled with scrofula, scald head, or other eruptions, but would be cured, or with sick head ache, (neuralgia) but would be cured. It will also remove all pimples from the face and skin. Prof Wood's Hair Restorative will do all this, see circular and the following.

ANN ARBOR, November 5, 1856.

PROF. O. J. WOOD—Dear Sir: I have heard much said of the wonderful effects of your Hair Restorative, but having been so often cheated by quackery and quack nostrums, hair dyes, &c., I was disposed to place your Restorative in the same category with the thousand and one loudly trumpeted quack remedies, until I met you in Lawrence county some months since, when you gave me such assurance as induced the trial of your Restorative in my family—first by my good wife, whose hair had become very thin and entirely white, and before exhausting one of your large bottles, her hair was restored nearly to its original beautiful brown color, and had thickened and become beautiful and glossy upon, and entirely over the head; she continues to use it, not simply because of its beautifying effects upon the hair, but because of its healthful influence upon the head and mind. Others of my family and friends are using your Restorative, with the happiest effects; therefore my scepticism and doubts in reference to its character and value are entirely removed, and I can and do most cordially and confidentially recommend its use by all who would have their hair restored from white or grey (by reason of sickness or, age,) to original color and beauty, and by all young persons who would have their hair beautiful and glossy.

Very truly and gratefully yours,
SOLOMON MANN.

FRIEND WOOD: It was a long time after I saw you at Blissfield before I got the bottle of Restorative for which you gave me an order upon your agent in Detroit, and when I got it we concluded to try it on Mrs. Mann's hair, as the surest test of its power. It has done all you assured me it would do; and others of my family and friends, having witnessed its effects, are now using and recommending its use to others as entitled to the highest consideration you claim for it.

Again, very respectfully and truly, yours.
SOLOMON MANN.

CARLYLE, ILL, June 28, 1852.

I have used Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, and have admired its wonderful effects My hair was becoming, as I thought, prematurely gray, but by the use of his Restorative it has resumed its original color, and, I have no doubt, permanently so.

THE LIVER
INVIGORATOR!
PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,

Compounded entirely from GUMS,

IS ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE AND LIVER MEDICINES now before the public, that acts as a Cathartic, easier, milder, and more effectual than any other medicine known. It is not only a Cathartic, but a Liver remedy, acting first on the Liver to eject its morbid matter, then on the stomach and bowels to carry off that matter, that accomplishing two purposes effectually, without any of the painful feelings experienced in the operations of most Cathartics. It strengthens the system at the same time that it purges it; and when taken daily in moderate doses, will strengthen and build it up with unusual rapidity.

SANFORD'S LIVER INVIGORATOR.

The Liver is one of the principal regulators of the human body; and when it performs its functions well, the powers of the system are fully developed. The stomach is almost entirely dependent on the healthy action of the Liver for the proper performance of its functions; when the out system suffers in consequence of one organ—the Liver—having ceased to do its duty. For the diseases of that organ, one of the proprietors has made it his study, in a practice of more than twenty years, to find some remedy wherewith to counteract the many derangements to which it is liable.

To prove that this remedy is at last found, any person troubled with Liver Complaint, in any of its forms, has but to try a bottle, and conviction is certain.

These Gums remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, purifying the blood, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

Bilious attacks are cured, and, what is better, prevented, by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents nightmare.

One dose taken after each meal will cure dyspepsia.

☞One dose of two tea-spoonsful will relieve Sick Headache.

One bottle taken for female obstruction removes the cause of the disease, and makes a perfect cure.

Only one dose immediately relieves Cholic, while one dose often repeated is a sure cure for Cholera Morbus, and a preventive of Cholera.

☞Only one bottle is needed to throw out of the system the effects of medicine after a long sickness.

One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite, and makes food digest well.

One dose often repeated cures Chronic Diarrhœa in its worst forms, while Summer and Bowel complaints yield almost to the first dose.

One or two doses cures attacks caused by Worms in Children: there is no surer, safer, or speedier remedy in the world, as it never fails.

☞A few bottles cures Dropsy, by exciting the absorbents.

We take pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventive for Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, and all Fevers of a Bilious Type. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

☞Mix Water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

The Liver Invigorator

IS A SCIENTIFIC MEDICAL DISCOVERY, and is daily working cures, almost too great to believe. It cures as if by magic, even the first dose giving benefit, and seldom more than one bottle is reqired to cure any kind of Liver Complaint, from the worst Jaundice or Dyspepsia to a common Headache, all of which are the result of a Diseased Liver.
